- Involves the manufacture, distribution and wholesaling of alcoholic products to persons under the age of 18
- Is deemed as having the likelihood of affecting Council's public image or reputation
- Is a corporate or community activity with an administrative or governance focus (eg. AGM, member meetings, board meetings)

Activities that may be considered for inclusion on the Events Calendar

- Events organised by businesses that have an entertainment element (other than a special menu) to mark occasions such as Valentine's Day, Mother's Day or Christmas
- Garage sales and activities that are raising money for a community organisation or individual
- Fetes that welcome members of the community and visitors to attend
- Regular events that are free and open to members of the community and visitors to participate/spectate.

*please refer p3 for guidelines/areas of responsibility relating to business events

AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

The event organiser

- Is responsible for uploading details to the calendar. Council takes no responsibility for events not listed, and subsequently, not promoted on the calendar
- Must have relevant approvals prior to listing the event on the Calendar
- Upload all details of the event (including a description of the event that will help attract visitors or locals to the event)
- Provide Council with any changes as they may arise (changes to the events listing can only be made by Council staff – refer contact below)
- Advise Council immediately if the event is cancelled, postponed or sold out

Dubbo Regional Council

- Will moderate requests for inclusion on the City's Events Calendar as per the guidelines
NB: Please allow up to 3 working days for your event to appear on the Event Calendar.
- Correct any typographical errors including spelling, formatting and tense to maintain the standard and tone of the calendar
- Will, on advice from the event organiser, remove the event from the Calendar if the event is sold-out or cancelled
- Will determine events that qualify for a high level of promotional support (as per below)

EVENTS QUALIFYING FOR HIGHER LEVEL /ADDITIONAL PROMOTION

Additional levels of promotion (via channels managed by Council) may be provided to events deemed as having:

1. An ability to drive visitation to the LGA
2. Broad community appeal
3. An ability to build on the LGA's reputation as a destination for events

The channels and types of additional support may include the following:

- Inclusion and appropriate space provided on the What's On document
- Mention of the event during weekly interviews on Radio 2DU and ZooFM
- Promotion via Council's social media channels
- Promotion of the event under Dubbo/Wellington on the Visit NSW website, visitnsw.com.au
- Inclusion of the event in copy or editorial in various print and on-line mediums (as opportunities arise)
- Promotion of the event on the digital sign located in Elston Park, Cobra Street, Dubbo.
